

The Heat of Success by Rob Parsons. (Hodder & Stoughton)

I am a great fan of Rob Parsons and his Christian Organisation 'Care for the Family.' Rob has a knack for reaching people, whether it is through his live seminars, or his books. I highly recommend this book for anyone who works in a business environment. Work can so easily take over our lives and suck us dry; leaving nothing for those we love. Rob shows up clearly how you can succeed in business, but still have a life.
